

Autism Society of California's 2018 Survey

Education Indicators

for California's I/DD Population

California Students with Autism as their Primary Disability, Aged 14-21, Exit with a High School Diploma from Special Education

The 2018 Autism Society of California reported a similar rate of graduation:

- 45% respondents over the age of 18 year reported graduating with a High School Diploma
- 52% reported receiving a Certificate of Completion or aging out of School
- 3% reported dropping out

313 survey participants

17%

reported feeling their loved one had the opportunity to explore different careers while in school

324 survey participants

32%

reported their loved one can write or discuss services or accommodations they need to be successful at a job

380 survey participants